PIE FAMINE IN NEW YORK. Bakers' Strike Has Stopped Product of 125,000 Per Day.

New York, Oct. 11.—New York faced a pie famine today as the msuit of the strike of the employes of several big pie bakeries. These establishments turn out about 125,000 pies a day. While the small bakeries, which do a retail trade, are still running, the result of the strike is severely felt by hotels and restaurants, which buy their pies in large lots. The striking pie makers want their wages raised from $15 to $16 a week. Superintendent Bisney no action was taken. It was voted to adopt resolutions of respect, and a committee consisting of Amos A. Brownnig, Henry A. Tirrell and Dr. P. J. Cassidy was appointed to draw up such a resolution. As a committee on a floral emblem from the district, Principal W. D. Tillson and O. E. Wulf were appointed.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR

JOINT DEBATE.

Challenge from

Appeared Last Night Before New York Public in Their First Addresses of the Campaign-Hearst Quiet.

New York, Oct. 11.—Two candidates for mayor of Greater New York, who have been engaged in bitter denuncia-tion of each other during the past two days, William R. Hearst and William J. Gaynor, appeared before the public tonight for their first addresses of the campaign. Hearst spoke at Carnegie campaign. Hearst spoke at Carnegle hall, Manhattan, where he formally ac-cepted the nomination of the body of independents known as the civic alliance. Justice Gaynor appeared at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn as the regular democratic nominee.

Gaynor Wants Fair Play. In his formal address Hearst re-trained from attacking his rival but Justice Gaynor, aroused by what he icclured to be Hearst's breach of faith in repudiating him, challenged the edin repudiating him, challenged the editor in his speech to meet him in joint debate on the issues of the campaign. "I want fair play above all in this contest," said Judge Gaynor. "The open enemy I honor, but I despise the enemy that sits back, as an editor or otherwise, and, pretending to be your friend, when he is only smiling while he burles his dagger in your ribs. The yellow comes out of a man if it is in him. So I say, let us have it out in the open. Mr. Hearst. "I am out of training as a public speaker and actually unfit to go before an audience, but I pass him this challenge. I am not afraid to meet him before the intelligent public."

What Was Done at Hearst Meeting. The Hearst meeting tonight was in the nature of an independent republi-can gathering in view of the fact that Hearst is to be at the head of the cket composed of the regular repub-can-fusion nominess. Opinion of the Authorities.

The discovery of a New Bedford nawspaper of yesterday's date with the portions of the limbs in the suit case is regarded as the most important clue thus far obtained, indicating possibly the place of the murder, if murder there was. The authorities tonight were of the opinion that the woman was murdered in New Bedford, that the legs were placed in the suit case there and brought by team or automobile to Tiverton last night.
